[14:09] <timeddiscovery> Regarding historical accuracy in multiplayer: wouldn't it be possible to have swastikas and historically accurate forces (ie no Germans wearing white helmets with a US star!/no black women incongruously serving for the Nazis on the Western Front etc) as an option that you could select (with the SJW-friendly, non-contensious censorship as the default to avoid any possible offense)..this could work much in the same way that you can select to change the Nazi voices from English to German.
[14:09] <elenaarboria> You need to jump while shooting, everyone knows that!
